SANTA BARBARA COUNTY ARTISTS

21st Annual Individual Artist Awards Call for Entries

[SUBMISSION DEADLINE]
Tuesday, March 16

Individual Artist Awards 2010

The Arts Fund invites Santa Barbara County artists to submit entries for its 21st Annual Individual Artist Awards (IAA).

This year awards will be offered in:

COLLAGE & ASSEMBLAGE
DRAWING
GENERAL FICTION

The Individual Artist Award program strives to recognize artistic excellence among Santa Barbara County artists in a broad range of categories and disciplines each year. The award is open to professional artists at any phase in their careers. The winner in each category will receive a cash prize of $2,000. All IAA winners and honorable mention recipients will be also be invited to participate in a group exhibition and award ceremony in fall 2010. IAA visual arts winners are granted a solo exhibition at The Arts Fund Gallery; an opportunity for a public reading will be arranged for the winner in general fiction.

The Arts Fund

The Arts Fund creates, funds, and administers programs and projects that support the visual, performing and literary arts for the benefit of the Santa Barbara County community. The Arts Fund also acts as a catalyst, maximizing the effectiveness of arts resources by nurturing collaborative relationships among area arts organizations and institutions.

Founded in 1983, The Arts Fund is a Santa Barbara-based nonprofit best known for sponsoring the annual Individual Artist Awards (IAA) and Teen Arts Mentorship Program. The Arts Fund also maintains a gallery space at 205C Santa Barbara Street (at Yanonali) to support its programs and to serve as a resource for other arts organizations. For more information please visit our website at www.artsfundsb.org.

2010 IAA Sponsors:

William T. Colville Foundation and Joanne Holderman

Eligibility

The IAA competition is open only to Santa Barbara County residents over 18 years of age who have resided in the county since March 1, 2009 and have not previously won an Individual Artist Award from The Arts Fund. Artists who have received honorable mentions from previous IAA competitions may apply. No employee or family member of The Arts Fund or judges in this competition is eligible to enter.

Selection Criteria and Review Process

- Quality and originality of work submitted will be the chief criteria in judging by experts in each discipline.
- Applicants must comply exactly with the competition submission requirements and deadline to be considered.
- Jurors in the visual arts categories reserve the right to request that original artworks be delivered to The Arts Fund Gallery for viewing if they deem that the digital images submitted do not fully reflect the artwork being considered.
- Only one cash award will be given in each discipline. Honorable mention recipients may be named at the jurors' discretion.
- Visual artworks submitted for review may be any dimension, however winners in these categories must provide exhibition-ready work that can be accommodated in The Arts Fund Gallery space.

Notification

Competition winners will be posted on The Arts Fund's website (www.artsfundsb.org) on May 12, 2010.

General Submission Requirements

- Each submission must include a completed Application Form (see attached) and a $30 entry fee. Electronic submissions will not be accepted.
- Digital images must be high quality RGB (not CMYK) JPEG format, with image compression set at quality level of 7 max, and image resolution at 72 dpi, with the longest dimension set to 700 pixels. Original artwork, photographs and/or slides will not be accepted.
- Text files containing resumes, annotated lists, and statements shall be submitted as MS Word, PDF or text files.
- Applicants may apply for multiple categories if they provide separate applications and fees for each submittal.
